

Cruise Packing Checklist

Travel Documents:

- Passport/ID (with necessary visas)
- Cruise boarding pass/tickets
- Travel insurance information
- Credit/debit cards and cash

Clothing:

- Casual wear (t-shirts, shorts, sundresses) for daytime activities
- Swimwear
- Formal attire (dresses, suits, ties) for formal dinners/events
- Casual evening wear (slacks, blouses, skirts, polo shirts) for other dinners
- Light jacket or sweater for cooler evenings
- Comfortable walking shoes and sandals
- Flip-flops or pool shoes
- Workout gear if you plan to use the onboard gym or participate in active excursions
- Hat and sunglasses for sun protection

Toiletries and Medications:

- Toothbrush and toothpaste
- Shampoo, conditioner, and body wash (many cruises provide these, but check beforehand)
- Sunscreen (at least SPF 30)
- Moisturizer and lip balm with SPF
- Prescription medications and any essential over-the-counter medications
- Seasickness medication (if you're prone to motion sickness)
- First-aid kit (band-aids, antiseptic cream, pain relievers)

Electronics and Accessories:

- o Cell phone and charger
- o Camera and extra batteries/charger
- o Power strip (some cabins have limited power outlets)
- o E-book reader or physical books
- o Travel adapter (if necessary)

Miscellaneous Items:

- o Travel-sized umbrella or rain poncho
- o Reusable water bottle
- o Snacks (granola bars, nuts) for excursions or between meals
- o Day bag or backpack for carrying essentials during shore excursions
- o Sunglasses strap or holder to prevent losing them on deck
- o Binoculars for wildlife watching and scenic views

Personal Items:

- o Jewelry and accessories
- o Personal hygiene products
- o Contact lenses and solution (if applicable)
- o Glasses and glasses case (if applicable)

Important Information:

- o Emergency contact list
- o Any specific cruise line or ship information you need to reference
- o Printed copies of travel itineraries and reservations

Entertainment and Leisure:

- o Deck of cards or travel games
- o Journal and pen
- o Music player and headphones
- o Sketchbook and drawing materials (if you enjoy art)

Luggage:

- o Suitcase or travel bags
- o Carry-on bag for essentials you want to keep with you before your main luggage arrives in your cabin

Remember to check your cruise line's specific guidelines regarding dress codes, formal nights, and any prohibited items. Some ships have laundry facilities or offer laundry services, which can help you pack lighter and re-use clothes during the trip. Be sure to pack for the climate and activities you plan to engage in during both the cruise and shore excursions. Happy cruising!